

Self TIME: Method Overview

Self TIME compares frozen Chronos-2 and TS-ICL forecasts with matched forecasts that receive declared causal transformations of the visible target history as past covariates. The implemented transformations use normalized magnitude, normalized sign, the visible raw target, constants, or the declared combined channel. Missing positions remain missing and no future target is used.